

Wilson came up and down as hand of votes changed the balance. Then it developed that the result in Idaho, carried by Wilson, and Minnesota and New Mexico, which are in doubt, may not be determined until the votes of their national guardmen on the Mexican border are counted. The votes of these guardmen are now on the way by mail to their respective states.

A single electoral vote suddenly has become a precious thing to two great political parties. At the Republican and Democratic headquarters the leaders have scarcely closed their eyes since Tuesday, so intent they are upon not overlooking the one vote that may decide the election.

ONE ELECTOR DIES.
The Democrats were greatly disturbed by the news that one of their electors in Washington died Tuesday morning before the voting began and the state committee was unable to fill the vacancy in time to get the substitute's name on the ballot. They now are wondering whether a special election for one presidential elector can be held under the constitution.

The Republicans claim that their highest elector on the list in Washington wins the dead elector's place. An unusual contest, involving a nice constitutional question, may develop over the need of this one electoral vote by each party.

BOTH WARN OF FRAUD.
Not since the Hayes-Tilden contest of 1876 has there been an election hanging on the turn of a few electoral votes, and not since the Cleveland-Blaine race of 1888 has the result been so long in doubt.

So close is the contest between Hughes and Wilson that each party is putting forth warnings against the danger of the rival candidate being "counted in" by friendly election officials.

The Democratic managers have instituted a contest of the Hughes plurality in New Hampshire and both parties are threatening contests in a number of states in which the change of a few hundred votes would give a different result.

If the result should be determined by only a handful of votes in the electoral college it is not improbable that the defeated party will seek to contest the election in congress when the electoral votes are canvassed in the house of representatives. If this should be done, it would be necessary to create an electoral commission, as in the case of the Hayes-Tilden contest.

CENTER ON TWO STATES.
For more than twenty-four hours the interest of the nation has centered in the counting of the ballots in California and Minnesota, which with their twenty-five electoral votes, it soon became apparent, would come close to determining the result.

Wilson developed a strong lead in the early returns from California. He had San Francisco, but had lost Los Angeles county by 25,000. Gradually his advantage was cut down to 5,000, and then with the receipt of figures from the rural districts it slumped to 1,500. Republican State Chairman Hughes was so encouraged that he guaranteed California to Hughes, alleging that the ranch and farm country would wipe out the Wilson lead. No sooner had this word been received than the Wilson plurality began to slip again, and again several hundred precincts yet to be reported. The result is still in doubt with a slight advantage remaining with the president.

Possibilities of Change.
California and Minnesota suddenly have become extremely important to both candidates, but more so to Hughes. With both California and Minnesota Hughes would have 272 votes, a majority of thirteen over Wilson. With either Hughes would still be short of a majority. With either Wilson also would be short of a majority, but he appeared to stand a better chance than Hughes of gaining the requisite additional votes in other states.

At midnight Senator Walsh, western Democratic manager asserted, after a telephone talk with Gavin McNab of San Francisco, that California will give Wilson 5,000 plurality.

While the candidates were seceding in California, the interest shifted to Minnesota, in which Wilson had a lead of more than 5,000. Derived principally from Minneapolis, St. Paul, and Duluth, which he carried. Then the Minnesota farmers began to be heard from and the Wilson margin started to melt away.

Hughes Goes Into Lead.
Down, down it went by scores and then by hundreds of votes until it disappeared and was replaced by a Hughes lead. The latest returns showed Hughes ahead by 224, with 333 precincts to be reported. It became so close to a certainty that Hughes would carry Minnesota that the Democratic managers could claim the state and asserted Wilson could win without it.

The Republican managers were so encouraged by the mounting Hughes lead in Minnesota that they added the twelve votes to their column and gave the Republican candidate a total of 239, only seven votes short of the requisite majority.

Confident on North Dakota.
Then the Republicans began to entertain high hopes that they could garner five of these seven votes in North Dakota, in which the candidates were seceding up and down throughout the day. First Hughes was ahead, then Wilson, then Hughes, and when the Tribune went to press Wilson had regained a lead of 119 votes, with 300 precincts yet to be heard from. Senator Walsh early this morning asserted that Wilson would carry North Dakota by approximately 1,000 plurality.

Along late in the evening New Mexico began to furnish a few thrills. The returns were scattering, with first Wilson and then Hughes ahead. The latest report showed Wilson 170 ahead in 100 out of 600 precincts. The confidential information at both headquarters was that Hughes probably would win the state and the Democrats said they could get along without it.

Split California Votes.
While the Republican managers were vying out the possibilities in the doubtful states of the transmississippi region, there came word from California that the electoral vote of that state probably would be split, giving eight electors to Hughes and five to Wilson. California frequently has split its electoral vote. In 1912 the Democrats carried two California electors and the

Presidential Victory Hinges on Results to Come from Few Doubtful States

All interest is centered now on the uncertain outcome of the presidential vote in a few states—namely California and Minnesota. Here are the latest dispatches from the several capitals of these doubtful commonwealths:

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8, 12:30 a. m.—Charles E. Hughes took the lead in the presidential contest in Minnesota, when returns from 2,481 precincts out of 3,078 in the state, compiled at midnight, gave Hughes 100,141; Wilson, 100,363. Mr. Hughes went into the lead when the returns from Fairbault county were registered.

Just before midnight, with 650 precincts still to be heard from, it could be seen that the tide was turning to Hughes. He had out the president's lead down to 500 votes.

Steady Gain by Hughes.
Up to that time Mr. Hughes had been gaining steadily at the rate of about sixteen votes a precinct in the country districts, abating in the majority of 1,000 given Wilson in St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Duluth.

Virtually all the large normally Democratic counties have reported, and most of the counties which report have usually gone Republican.

Judging from the trend in districts neighboring on those yet to hear from, it is believed Mr. Hughes will pull out a comfortable plurality.

Despite the switch to Hughes, the Democratic leaders are claiming the state by 4,500. Republicans are becoming more confident as the late returns favor Hughes, but refuse to make any prediction as to his probable plurality.

Wilson Leads in California.
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—With votes from more than 100 precincts in Los Angeles looked up for the night and San Francisco virtually complete, 5,100 precincts of 5,917 in California gave Hughes 431,568; Wilson 435,900.

Hughes had a plurality of 180,000 in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Chester H. Rowell, chairman of the Republican state central committee, predicted tonight Hughes' election in California by a small majority. Mr. Rowell's statement follows:

"Figures gathered by the Los Angeles office of the Republican state committee covering more than 1,000 precincts, and clear estimates of the remaining precincts, indicate that Hughes will carry Los Angeles county by 25,000."

"The Los Angeles office," estimated that this lead will be increased 12,000 more by other southern California counties. If these figures are borne out by the final count, Hughes will carry California by 15,000."

"Our figures on San Francisco indicate a majority of little if any over 15,000 for Wilson."

O. K. Cushing, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, issued late today the following statement:

"Having my opinion upon verified reports from every county in California, I confidently assert that President Wilson will carry California by 15,000."

Hughes 22,000 in Los Angeles.
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—With a majority of 20,348 in 1,100 out of 1,215 precincts in Los Angeles city and county, Hughes will carry Los Angeles county by more than 24,000. County Chairman Frank P. Doherty of the Republican county central committee declared at midnight that Hughes' majority will be fully 25,000.

Hughes' final plurality in southern California is estimated to be 24,000. This figure includes the eight counties south of Tehachapi. Orange county, with one precinct with eighteen votes missing, gives Hughes a majority of 4,000. Ventura county, with two precincts having a total vote of not exceeding fifty missing, gives Hughes a majority of 1,137.

Wilson Behind in San Diego.
San Diego, Cal., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—Wilson led in San Diego city and county complete Hughes was leading 4,000. Ventura county, with two precincts having a total vote of not exceeding fifty missing, gives Hughes a majority of 1,137.

Mp and Tuck in North Dakota.
Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8, 1 a. m.—North Dakota early last night swung into the doubtful column when slowly incoming returns from the outlying districts wiped away President Wilson's lead.

Since that time the lead has changed with nearly every new registration, until at midnight President Wilson was leading with 119 votes. In a territory populated by German-Americans.

The Republican state committee claims Mr. Hughes will be returned winner by 2,000 votes and the Democrats see Wilson victor by a like figure.

West Virginia to Hughes.
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Mr. Hughes' lead over President Wilson in West Virginia was suddenly increased by 1,538 votes just before midnight by the returns from McDowell county, one of the southern counties of the state.

This made his total plurality over Mr. Wilson of 3,505, the greatest since the count of the vote began. The vote is: Hughes, 110,611; Wilson, 107,106, from 1,276 precincts out of the 1,713.

"Mr. Hughes' lead was steadily maintained throughout the late afternoon and during the night. Earlier in the day the returns, having swung from Hughes to Wilson, were again giving him a lead. He had only a few hundred more than that boasted by the president. Returns that began to come in the late afternoon, however, swung the difference in vote back to the neighborhood of the 2,000 mark, where it had been since last night."

Cornwell, Democratic nominee for governor, is leading Robinson, Republican, by 2,294, with 437 precincts to hear from. Cornwell has maintained about the same lead since shortly after last midnight.

Sutherland, the Republican nominee for United States senator, has the largest lead over an opponent, having nearly 6,000 more votes than Senator Clifton with 437 precincts to hear from.

UP TO CONGRESS IF PRESIDENTY BRINGS CONTEST

Democratic Majority Would Decide Protesting of Vote in Closer States.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—In case the defeated candidate for president wants to make a contest for the office, based on the closeness of the returns in the crucial states, the matter will go to congress for adjustment.

This would give President Wilson a great advantage, whether contestant or defendant, inasmuch as the Democratic party has complete control of the machinery of both the house and the senate, and would provide the means for hearing and adjudicating the contest.

The constitution formally provides a method for such a contest, but the candidate gets a majority in the electoral college. It does not provide a method, however, for the conduct of a contest in which a defeated candidate demands a recounting of the ballots in doubtful states.

Where there is not a majority in the electoral college, the house of representatives chooses a president. The house does not vote by members, but by state delegations. Inasmuch as either Mr. Wilson or Mr. Hughes will have a majority on the face of final returns from the election on Tuesday, the house will not elect by this method.

Contest of 1876 Recalled.
In 1876 there was a dispute over the result between Hayes and Wheeler, Republican candidates for president and vice president, and Tilden and Hendricks, the Democratic candidates. Tilden and Hendricks won the house of representatives by one vote of a majority. The votes in three states were contested. At the time the house of representatives was controlled by the Democrats and the senate by the Republicans. The constitution provides that the electoral ballots shall be opened at a joint session of congress and counted by the president of the senate. This was the crux of the contest between Tilden and Hayes.

Mr. Hughes adhered to his determination to say nothing until the result should have been learned finally so far as possible from unofficial returns. During the afternoon he and Mrs. Hughes motored for two hours and on their return Mr. Hughes took a three hour nap. Although Mr. Hughes appeared to be in good physical trim, members of his personal staff were heavy eyed and showed the strain under which they had been laboring. Most of them had been without sleep since early Tuesday morning.

How Hayes Was Elected.
The Republicans gained control of the commission and by a strict party vote of 8 to 7 it decided the contests in each of the three states in favor of Hayes and Wheeler. The house rejected the findings of the electoral college, if they are adverse. If they are in his favor it is assumed that the other candidate will go to congress, in which event the electoral committees of the senate and the house would hear the case and decide whether or not to propose legislation providing for an adjudication beyond that of the courts.

LIST OREGON FOR HUGHES: LEADING BY NEARLY 6,500.
Portland, Ore., Nov. 8.—Charles E. Hughes was leading President Wilson in Oregon late tonight by 6,450 on the face of scattered incomplete returns from all but two of the thirty-five counties, which gave Hughes 101,083 and Wilson 94,633. Early in the night Hughes was credited with a lead of 10,000.

Hughes has a lead of about 20,000 votes in Multnomah county, where Portland is located, and is likely to give a plurality of 3,000 or more against the president. The returns from the country are about two-thirds reported.

Update the returns are made, but show a Wilson tendency. The Willamette valley has failed to roll up the expected Hughes plurality, while the few returns available from eastern Oregon indicate a decided Wilson trend there, and the pluralities there may offset Multnomah county.

"Looks good. Election depends entirely on Oregon." This is the message Chairman Willcox of the Republican national committee wired at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon to Charles L. McNary, state chairman.

The prediction of McNary was that Oregon will be for Hughes by a majority of 7,000.

King, Democrat, was elected senator by 10,000; as was Bamberger, Democratic candidate for governor. The entire Democratic state ticket was elected.

VERMONT 16,000 FOR HUGHES.
Burlington, Vt., Nov. 8.—Re-lead and nearly complete returns from yesterday's election in Vermont show that Charles E. Hughes carried the state by a plurality of approximately 16,000. Horace P. Graham, Republican gubernatorial candidate, won by a plurality exceeding 25,000.

PRESIDENT RETIRES; IN DOUBT ON FATE

Long Branch, N. J., Nov. 8.—Despairing of receiving final returns tonight President Wilson retired at 11:10 o'clock. He left word, however, that he was to be awakened if anything really definite was received. The president was uncertain whether or not he had been elected, although his campaign managers were claiming a majority in the electoral college.

Following an automobile ride and golf game before lunch, the president remained in his study at Shadow Lawn this afternoon and tonight, getting the returns by telephone from Secretary Tumulty, who had been on guard at the executive offices since 6 o'clock last night.

During his ride the president passed through Asbury Park, where the executive offices are located. He was recognized by many and cheered. One group shouted out to him enthusiastically that he had been re-elected. He raised his hat and bowed, smiling broadly. Mrs. Wilson accompanied him.

The president kept his own tabulation of electoral votes and checked it off carefully after each report from Tumulty. He received a number of messages from Democratic leaders assuring him he had been re-elected.

After a brief absence from dinner Secretary Tumulty, with members of the executive office staff and local Democrats, kept up their vigil at the executive offices tonight.

They were prepared to remain up all night, if necessary, although most of them had not been to bed since early yesterday morning.

Spends Day in Apartment at Hotel Except for Two Hour Ride—Willcox Claims Victory.

New York, Nov. 8.—Charles E. Hughes and his wife spent the better part of sixteen hours today in their apartments at an uptown hotel here watching the ebb and flow of the election returns. Most of the day they were alone. Their three daughters left soon after breakfast, Miss Catherine to return to Wellesley and Miss Elizabeth to take Miss Helen back to school in Washington.

Chairman Willcox dined with the nominee and his wife tonight. As he was leaving, Mr. Hughes declared that he believed Mr. Hughes had been elected and added that the nominee shares this belief.

Mr. Hughes adhered to his determination to say nothing until the result should have been learned finally so far as possible from unofficial returns. During the afternoon he and Mrs. Hughes motored for two hours and on their return Mr. Hughes took a three hour nap. ## WILSON BY 7,000 IN WASHINGTON

Estimated Plurality Greatly Reduced—Poindexter Re-elected Senator.

GOVERNOR A DEMOCRAT
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—President Woodrow Wilson has carried the state of Washington, but the enthusiastic claim of the Democrats of 20,000 plurality is dwindling on the face of the latest returns.

Indications are the president will win by not more than 7,000. Returns from 1,737 precincts out of 2,385 in the state give Hughes 129,906 and Wilson 141,115. President Wilson's lead has been constant, and there is no reason to believe Hughes can overtake it.

West Side of State for Wilson.
The eastern side of the state, the orchard and wheat districts, gave the Democratic state committee, however, those which regularly would fall on the state. As far as known no change of fraud has been made.

George E. Farrand, chairman of the Democratic state committee, gave out the returns from the western side of the state, which came through strong for Wilson.

United States Senator Miles Poindexter, Republican, who drew thousands of votes from the Democratic side, was elected over former Senator George Turner, Democrat, by a large plurality, returns from 1,238 precincts out of 2,385 in the state giving Poindexter 114,942 and Turner 77,000.

Lister Re-elected Governor.
Injection of the wet and dry issue in the campaign resulted in the reelection of Governor Lister, Democrat, by an estimated plurality of 5,000 over Henry McBride, Republican, who was a 2 to 1 bet the day of the election.

Both came out for the dry, but Lister made the strongest plea to the Republican.

The rest of the state ticket is safely Republican.

Two initiative measures designed to loosen up the state prohibition law were overwhelmingly defeated, as were an amendment to limit voters on bond issues to taxpayers only and a series of referendum measures to "strengthen" the initiative and recall laws and to "strengthen" party organization.

G. O. P. May Get Elector.
Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 8.—There appears to be a possibility that, although President Wilson carried Washington, Hughes may get one of the seven electoral votes of Washington. The death of A. Stream, a Democratic elector, shortly before election and the substitution of E. J. Connor as elector came so late that in many counties the name of Stream, rather than Connor, appeared on the ballot. It is said that thousands of voters voted for Stream and that these votes will be invalid, and the difference may be sufficient, according to local Republicans, to give one Republican elector a plurality.

HUGHES' MICHIGAN MARGIN 25,000 ON HALF RETURNS.
Indications Are He Will Have 40,000 Majority, According to Republican Point of View.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—The plurality of Charles E. Hughes over Woodrow Wilson in Michigan mounted to nearly 25,000 today when returns from about one-half of the precincts were compiled. Hughes' plurality was constantly growing as Republican leaders claimed he would carry Michigan by more than 40,000.

Returns from 1,085 precincts, including 52 of Wayne county, in which Detroit is located, gave Hughes 155,118 and Wilson 130,854.

TEACHERS' PENSION FUND ELECTS NEW OFFICERS.
Mary M. Abbe and Mary A. Burt Win Three Year Terms—Other Results Announced.

The annual election of trustees of the teachers' pension and retirement fund was held yesterday. In every public school teachers voted. At the close of the polls at 4 o'clock the ballots were taken to the board of education room where they were counted. The winners for the three year term and the vote were:

Mary M. Abbe, 4,892.
Mary A. Burt, 4,474.
Other candidates for the same office and their votes were: Caroline Baldwin, 678; William R. Hornbaker, 1,305; Joseph Hutchinson, 153; Walter H. Wigham, 1,305; Frank L. Morse, 27; Eleanor M. McNary, 1; Catherine E. Russell, 1.
Charles B. Stillman was elected for a two year term to fill a vacancy. He received 4,701 votes.

Those who won the one year term in the vacancy and the vote were: Anna G. Baer, 4,674; Wilma E. Smith, 4,116.

CHICAGO HOME RULE, ECONOMY, LOWDEN POLICY

United Agencies of Government and Settlement of Saloon Problem.

BY WALTER NOBLE BURNS.

Oregon, Ill., Nov. 8.—Col. Frank O. Lowden outlined definitely today the policies which he hopes will set apart his four years as governor of Illinois as a memorable era in the history of the state.

The governor-elect had just come in from the barn on his 4,700 acre Sinsinipi estate, near Oregon. While toasting his shins at a log fire that crackled on the fire-dogs in the open chimney, he remarked that he once had bred a short-horn bull that had won the blue ribbon as sweepstakes champion of the continent.

"That short-horn bull was one of the achievements of my life," said Col. Lowden. "The governorship is another."

Then he glanced out the window at Rock river, the boundary of his front yard, being whipped into beaten silver by a pelting rain. Col. Lowden passed from short-horn to statecraft with the facility of one wise in both cows and politics.

His Program.

Here are the governmental policies and the legislations which Col. Lowden declared his administration as governor would seek to achieve:

Home rule for Chicago in public utilities.

A constitutional convention to write an entirely new constitution for Illinois.

Consolidation of the scattered agencies of government.

A unified department of agriculture.

Reconstruction of the financial department.

Settlement of the wet and dry issue.

Expert management of state charities and penal institutions.

"I have not considered appointments as yet," said Col. Lowden. "I shall hold a conference in Chicago on Friday with party chiefs and legislative leaders to shape our legislative program. Positively this conference will not consider appointments. Such a discussion at this time would be premature. I expect to leave for my plantation in Arkansas next Tuesday. I will rest in the south for two weeks. I will not take up the question of appointments until I return."

Stead and Ramsey.

Col. Lowden was told that rumor had it that W. H. Stead, former attorney general and his campaign manager, was to be president of the state board of public utilities, and that Gordon Ramsey was to be public administrator of Cook county. He said these appointments had not yet been decided on.

"I do not wish," Col. Lowden continued, "to prophesy an Augustan era for the state during my administration. I do not care to boast of high ideals. But I have definite views regarding certain lines in the administration of state affairs. Many evils have crept into the state government which I believe I shall be able to remedy. I am going to give Illinois an honest, efficient, and economical administration. To do this I propose to surround myself with the ablest lieutenants it is in my power to select.

Appointees Held to Duty.

"I will hold my appointees," said Col. Lowden, "to the same high standard of efficiency in the public service as is exacted from men in the employ of the best managed private business. When I make an appointment that man's whole duty from that moment will be to the public. I will have that definitely understood at the start.

"In the matter of control of public utilities, I believe in home rule for Chicago. Every city that reaches the population and industrial development of Chicago becomes necessarily a unit of government in itself. Public utilities are intimately intertwined with its life. The theory of our government is that the things that pertain to the state must be done by the state, the things that pertain to the municipality must be done by the municipality, and the things that are for the general good must be done by the federal government. Everything cannot be run by a central government without developing a bureaucracy which is inconsistent with self-government.

Case of Chicago.

Chicago's public utilities are exclusively its own. Outsiders might quite naturally be expected to muddle in attempting to control them. The city itself best knows the improvements that are needed, the best remedies for defects, the most practicable economies. Unquestionably, in my mind, Chicago should have vested in itself the right to control its own public utilities."

"How will you start the ball rolling in the era of change which your administration is to usher in?"

"The very first thing I will do will be to consolidate the scattered agencies of government. There are now vastly too numerous. There are about 150 of them. I propose to bring them together in logical groups and place experts in charge of each group.

"Our penitentiaries and correctional institutions are now under separate management. They should be consolidated under one board. The agricultural experiment station, a live stock commission, a board of agriculture, and so on. Instead of these scattered and unrelated bodies, I will establish one department of agriculture with a thoroughly trained man at the head of it. By keeping in touch with this kind of department the governor will keep in touch with the entire agricultural situation.

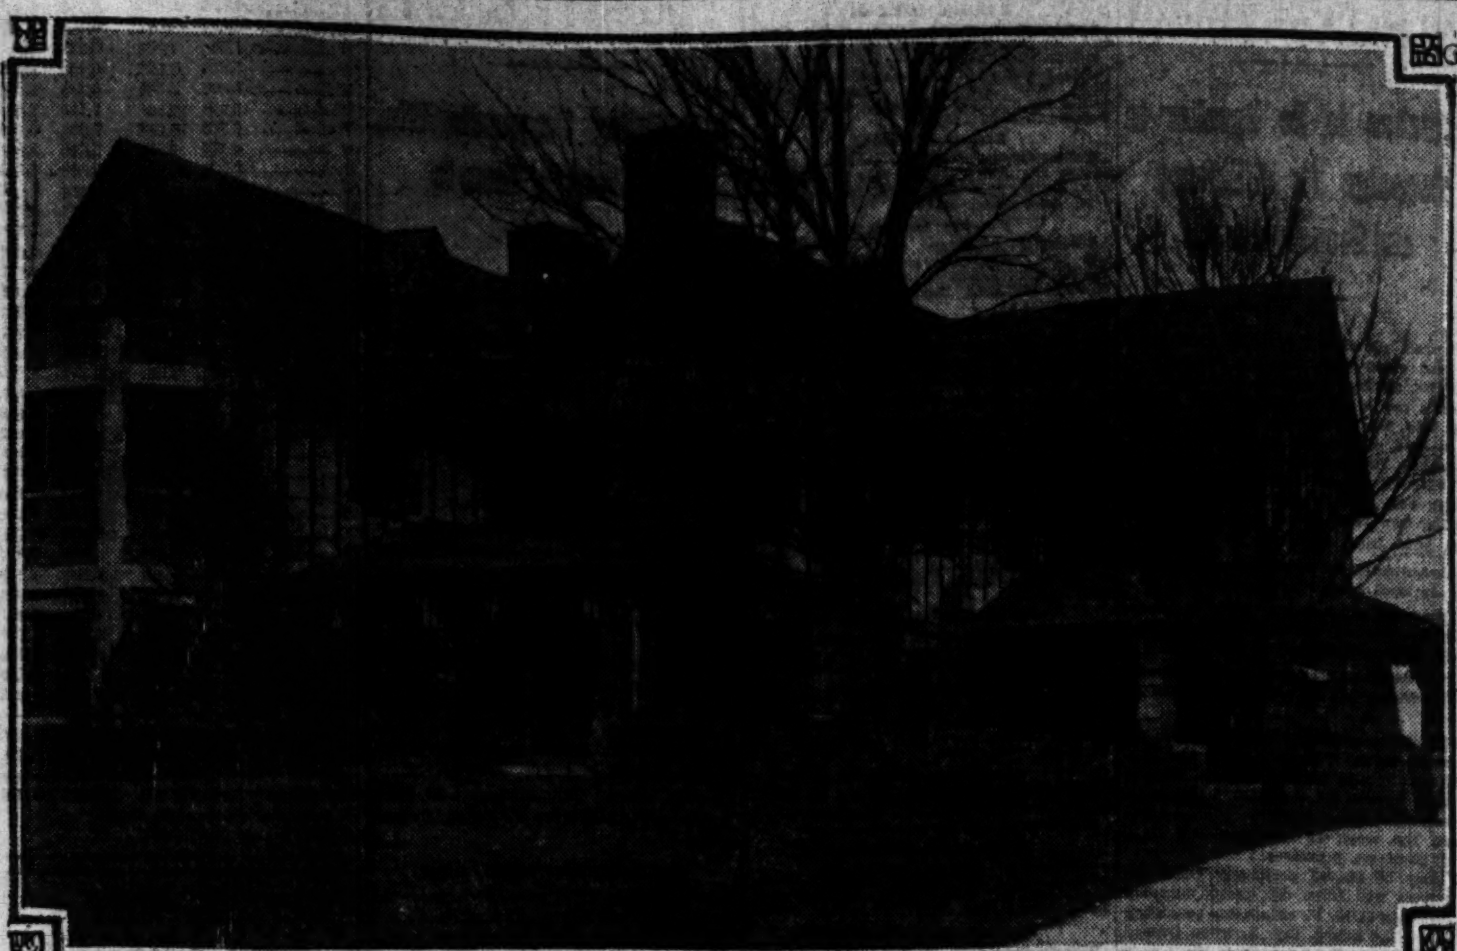

Reorganize Financial Bureau.

"Most important of all will be the reorganization of the state financial department. There is now no official regularly charged with receiving estimates of the various departments which might enable him to submit an intelligent budget. Without a budget the legislature cannot make appropriations intelligently.

"Under the present scheme no responsibility is fixed. I would have an official who would be in a position to compare estimates for institutions with the expenditures of other years. Then when the legislature meets the governor could submit a statement of the absolute needs of the government. Until this is

The Governor-Elect and Mrs. Lowden and the Country Home She Is Reluctant to Leave Even for the Governor's Mansion at Springfield.

Col. Lowden's Home

THE STATE'S FIRST WOMAN AFTER JANUARY

Mrs. Lowden, the daughter of the late George M. Pullman, is the handsome mother of four children. Three of the children are away in eastern schools. Frances, the "baby," is 12, and taller than her mother. She goes to the public school in Oregon.

A thousand unostentatious charities have endeared Mrs. Lowden not only to the countryside but to the poor of Chicago. She keeps two cottages on her estate filled continually with relays of fifteen or twenty crippled and orphaned little ones from Chicago tenements. The children are in charge of trained nurses. They have the freedom of the farm. Swings and merry-go-rounds amuse them. They live on the best farm fare.

In summer they are driven about in automobiles. In winter they are given sleigh rides behind horses with jingling bells. Only last week Mrs. Lowden rented a movie picture theater in Oregon for an afternoon and evening for their recreation. She had had a movie photographer take pictures of the children in their pastimes and the little people saw themselves at play upon the screen.

"I am happy that my husband has been honored with election as governor of Illinois," said Mrs. Lowden. "But I shall miss Springfield when I am called to Springfield. I shall miss my new law office, my fresh milk, my homegrown vegetables and the meat of my own beets and mushrooms. Above all, I shall miss this." Mrs. Lowden held out her hands to the cheerful blaze of the open hearth. "There are no open hearths in the executive mansion."

accomplished we cannot have the highest economy or efficiency."

Constitutional Convention.

"Are you in favor of calling a constitutional convention?"

"I am heartily in favor of it. I think now is the right time. I intend to recommend it in my first message."

"The old constitution has much that is good. But it was passed as Illinois' third constitution in 1870. We have outgrown it. In my eyes it has three cardinal defects. These are: The provision permitting only one amendment at a time; the clause providing for minority representation in the legislature; and the creation of too great a number of elective offices, which prevent fixing the responsibility for bad government."

"What are these superfluous elective offices which should be changed into appointive offices?"

"There are many. However, I do not care just now to go into that matter fully."

On Statewide Prohibition.

"What will be your attitude on statewide prohibition?"

"That question is one peculiarly within the province of the legislature. I do not expect to make any recommendations on the subject. In view of the constructive legislation to which the Republican party is pledged, I hope that whatever is done in the matter will be done as soon as possible after the legislative convenes in order that much needed legislation may not be blocked."

"What are these superfluous elective offices which should be changed into appointive offices?"

"No. Such consolidation was up to the Chicago people on election day and they voted it down. I will have nothing to do with it."

"Can you approximate the amount lost by the state in unnecessary expenses?"

"I should not care to try. But it is an enormous sum. I believe careful economy and efficiency can eliminate it."

COUNTY OFFICES BACK IN CONTROL OF REPUBLICANS

Clean Sweep of All Places Except Prosecutor and Three Judges.

BY CHARLES N. WHEELER.

Republicans made an all out clean sweep with their Cook county ticket Tuesday, despite the bull in the china shop mess that State's Attorney Hoyne made of his runaway race for reelection.

All big county offices for which they put candidates in the field, with the one exception of state's attorney, are back in their hands.

On the face of the complete but unofficial returns from Cook county the Democrats appear to have elected Judge Joseph Sabath to the Superior court vacancy, and Harry P. Dolan and Judge John R. Caverly to the Municipal bench.

The official can... may change this result in favor of the Republicans.

DOLAN'S LEAT 387.

Dolan, who finished in tenth place, just inside the wire, on the face of the police returns has a lead of but 387 votes over Anton T. Zeman, who finished in eleventh place. Judge Caverly, who finished ninth, has a lead of 3,490 over Zeman, and is considered fairly safe.

But outside of this the Republicans sent men back to the Circuit and Superior court clerkships, to the board of review, board of assessors, the corporation, recorder's office, and have regained control of the important sanitary district board, which has been under Democratic sway for many years.

Charles H. Sengel, who is the new president-elect of the board, rolled up a plurality over Thomas M. Sullivan of 6,400, and along with the Sengel and Hughes sweep James H. Lawley and Matthias Mueller, his running mates for members of the board, were carried in with pluralities of about 40,000.

Five of the sanitary board. Wallace G. Clark and George W. Paulin of the present board are holdovers. Republicans, giving the Republicans five of the nine members and the most important member of all—the president.

Mr. Sengel's big vote was due in large part to the woman support he received. He got the votes of several thousand more women than Sullivan, while carrying a majority of the men voters with him.

That the women did not allow party lines to stand in the way of helping to roll up the Sengel landslide, was evidenced last night when Miss Mary McDowell expressed her elation over the result.

DEMOCRATIC WOMAN ELECTED

She asserted that Sengel's election was particularly due to the large women support received, and she intimated that notwithstanding she was one of the main cogs in the Democratic Wilson headquarters during the campaign she did not let go an opportunity to advise her women friends to vote for Mr. Sengel.

The sanitary board is slated for an upheaval, an overturning, and a shaking of dry bones.

While Mr. Sengel is reticent about expressing his opinions at this time, it is known he intends to turn on the searchlight and ascertain just what's been doing. In this he will have the hearty support of Clark and Paulin.

HOW FACTIONS FARED.

The Deane and Medina temple "neutrals" divide the big cities about even, with the neutral getting the short end. The neutral group that won in the primary and was elected yesterday is composed of A. W. Miller, Circuit court clerk; John Kjellander, Superior court clerk; Peter Hansen, coroner; Robert E. Crowe, Circuit court judge; Lawley and Mueller on the sanitary board, and George K. Schmidt for long term assessor.

The Deane group finished yesterday with the following big offices: Sengel, president of the sanitary board; Joseph Haas, recorder; Edward R. Litzinger, board of review, and Charles Ringer, short term assessor.

DEFEATS BIG SURPRISE.

The defeat of Webb, Connery, and Rainey on the Democratic side was one of the big surprises of the day. It was the general opinion of all party leaders that they would run thousands of votes ahead of their party ticket on the good record they made in the offices.

At that John W. Rainey ran a great race against heavy odds and is not entirely out of the fighting yet. The union police returns show August W. Miller, the Republican candidate, elected with a plurality of but 2,697.

Canvass May Work Changes.

The official canvass may materially change these figures and if the final tabulation is anywhere near a few hundred votes it is understood the Democrats may ask for a recount.

It was the county town vote that snowed Rainey under. In the city proper he ran ahead of Miller by 9,754 votes. The vote was:

ILLINOIS GIVES HUGHES NEARLY 200,000 LEAD

Republican Plurality Now Ap-

BULLETIN.

Returns for governor from 2,034 precincts out of 2,973 in Illinois outside of Cook county give:
Dunne, Dem., 231,886
Lowden, Rep., 235,585

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.
The Republican plurality in Illinois for Hughes and Fairbanks is better than 190,000 and may get up to 200,000. Col. Frank O. Lowden's plurality over Gov. Dunne is at least 165,000.

These are the figures as returned by the Associated Press. At the Republican state headquarters, where a precinct tabulation is being made, the claim is offered that Hughes and Lowden will each have a plurality of about 200,000.

Whole State Ticket In.
As the returns from downstate came in, it became evident that the Republican state ticket had been elected in its entirety. Tuesday night doubt existed as to the secretary of state. It is now certain that Lewis G. Stevenson has defeated Secretary Lewis G. Stevenson by more than 90,000.

Medill McCormick and William H. Mason are elected congressmen at large; all of the sitting Republican congressmen are returned, including Loren E. Wheeler in the Springfield district, whose seat was in doubt until late night, and Congressman Stone in the Peoria district and Tamm in the Rock Island district, both Democrats, have been replaced by Clifford Ireland and William J. Graham respectively. Neil Juhl has defeated Congressman Frank Buchanan, Democrat, in the Seventh district in Chicago.

Both branches of the Illinois general assembly are strongly Republican and certain to be organized by the Republicans, determined to back up Governor-elect Lowden to the limit on the Republican platform of efficiency, economy, and reform.

Women for Hughes.
Hughes sets a strong plurality of the women's vote both in Cook county and downstate. The Hughes plurality in Cook county, men and women, is 46,462. On the incomplete returns he has an indicated plurality downstate over the president of 147,700, bringing his ultimate lead to about 190,000.

Downstate, the Democratic managers failed to make a dent in the railroad and manufacturing centers. County after county, where the hardest attacks were made by the Democrats on the eight-hour law, was carried by the Republicans by old time Republican majorities.

The corn belt counties, purely farming and grain producing, went into the Republican column in rapid fire. Southern Illinois, as usual, turned in sweeping Hughes and Fairbanks pluralities. The counties in northern and western Illinois that were all for Roosevelt in 1912 came through with smashing Hughes pluralities. As the returns were digested by the Republican managers, the result in Illinois was a regulation old style Republican victory.

Dunne Leads Wilson.
Gov. Dunne's personal popularity in Chicago was demonstrated by the returns. He carried eight wards that the president lost and he had a net lead over President Wilson in the city of 1,468. Downstate Col. Lowden had the full benefit of the whacking plurality he had amassed in the three cornered governorship fight at the September primaries.

The lieutenant governor John G. Oglesby will finish with a plurality over Henry W. Huttman of more than 200,000. Louis L. Emmerson's plurality over Lewis G. Stevenson in the secretary of state will be about 90,000. Len Small is elected state treasurer over Arthur W. Charles by 110,000 or more; Edward J. Brundage will have a plurality over Patrick J. Looney for attorney general of 100,000 approximately. And Andrew Russell's estimated plurality for auditor over James J. Brady is about 145,000.

The three Republican candidates for trustees of the state university, William L. Abbott, Mrs. Mary E. Bussey, and O. W. Holt, are elected by the congressmen at large. Medill McCormick runs pretty close to Col. Lowden and Mr. Mason is not very far behind.

West Virginia Women Lose.
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Women suffrage shows a fast growing vote against the amendment.

SOCIALIST MAYOR ELECTED.
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8.—Thomas Van Lear, who was informed and received the support of the Socialist party, was elected mayor of Minneapolis over Otto J. Langum by a majority of approximately 3,000 votes, according to complete returns today.

HUGHES 8,000 AHEAD IN INDIANA: COUNT CLOSING

Only 888 of 3,143 Precincts Yet to Report, but Democrats Refuse to Concede State.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Although Hughes was leading by more than 5,000 with only 882 of the 3,143 precincts in the state unaccounted for, the Democratic state headquarters, tonight, refused to concede a victory to the Republican candidates in the state. The Republican candidates for governor and United States senator, with a smaller number of precincts reported, showed larger pluralities than did the presidential candidates.

According to unofficial returns Hughes has been in the lead in Indiana ever since the tabulation of the vote started, but his lead ranging around 15,000 early last night had dwindled tonight to a little more than 8,000.

The Prohibitionists and Socialists' vote, with complete returns from twenty-three of the ninety-two counties in the state, was not so large as was expected. It was said tonight. Both the Prohibitionist and Socialist candidates for governor polled larger votes than did Hanly and Benson. The Progressive vote was light.

MAINE TO HUGHES BY 5,000

Practically Complete Returns Show Heaviest Presidential Vote Since "Greenback" Election.

Portland, Me., Nov. 8.—Practically complete returns tonight of the heaviest presidential vote ever cast in this state, with the exception of that at the "greenback" election in 1850, gave Justice Hughes a plurality of 5,118. He had 68,540, against 63,427 for President Wilson.

KENTUCKY WILSON BY 26,604

Democrats Win All but Tenth and Eleventh District Races for Congress.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—With returns from all except a few precincts in Kentucky went Democratic by a plurality of 26,604. The total number of votes cast for Wilson was 188,575. Hughes received 161,969 votes in the race for congress the Democrats win in all but the Tenth and Eleventh districts.

CONSTRUCTIVE STATE PROGRAM, G. O. P. DECISION

Shanahan to Be Speaker in Campaign for Efficiency and Economy Laws.

Ground plans were made yesterday for the most elaborate and comprehensive legislative program attempted in Illinois for a generation. The initial step was the launching of a campaign on behalf of Representative David E. Shanahan for speaker of the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly. Included in the work, which is being mapped out for the new legislature, which will convene next January, is:

- Enactment of legislation on efficiency and economy laws.
- Passage of revenue reform laws.
- Adoption of constitutional convention resolution.
- Private bank regulation act.
- Extension of home rule rights of cities.

With the report of later election returns showing certainly that the Republicans would be in absolute control of both houses of the new legislature, Republican state leaders immediately began the work of carrying out their party platform promises.

It may be stated positively that Mr. Shanahan will have the united support of the state G. O. P. chiefs for presiding officer of the house. Gov. Lowden, United States Senator Sherman, and the lesser Republican chiefs already have set the ball rolling for Mr. Shanahan. It is doubtful if any other Republican will announce his candidacy for the place.

Number of Changes.

A number of changes from the first returns were made with the receipt of further reports yesterday and last evening. Representative John P. Walsh of the Third Chicago district moved out Representative E. M. Santry for the Democratic place. B. M. Mitchell was shown to be reflected in the Twenty-first Chicago district and Representative Albert Rustenkowski on the later returns was defeated by Edward Walls in the Twenty-seventh district.

Downstate house changes included the election of Representative T. C. Burton of Decatur, Republican, from the Twenty-eighth district, in place of Representative Edward C. Perkins of Lincoln. Representative D. D. Donahue of Bloomington was reflected instead of George E. Dooley, Frank Coles of the Forty-eighth district from the first returns, was defeated, and Robert E. Smith, Republican, of East St. Louis, seems to have met a similar fate in the Forty-ninth district. George B. Welborn of Woodlawn, Republican, was moved out by Frank Vice Jr. of Olney, Republican.

In the Forty-fourth district the fight for the Democratic place resulted in victory for James M. Etherton of Carbondale and the defeat of W. T. Morris of Duquoin. In the Forty-third district P. W. Gallagher apparently has defeated William H. Basal for the honor of representing the Democratic party from that district.

In the senate fights several changes developed. Representative Charles L. Wood of Keosauqua has defeated W. Duff Piercy, Democratic incumbent. Frank B. Wendling, Democrat, of Shelbyville, has won in the Fortieth district, as has Senator F. C. Campbell in the Forty-second district. Senator B. D. Canaday, Democrat, has been reflected in the Thirty-eighth district, and James A. Henson, Republican, of Decatur, will represent the Twenty-eighth district in the upper house.

Two Democrats—William H. Dietrich of Beardstown and James H. Kirby of Petersburg—will represent the Thirtieth district. Elmer O. Neef of Pekin, Republican, was elected in the Forty-first district. P. C. Walbaum of Ashland was defeated. The Democrats made another gain downstate, with the election of both Representative C. A. Purdum of

WILSON WINNING IN IDAHO.

In 378 of 743 Precincts His Lead Is Almost 10,000 Over Hughes for State.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—The count of 372 precincts, complete, out of 743 in the state gave Wilson 33,515; Hughes, 25,498. This is more than half the vote. For governor Alexander, Dem., leads with 32,765, against Davis, Rep., with 30,804.

WIFE DIES AS HUSBAND WINS

Mrs. Charles Dostschman Oversees Herself in Campaign and Is Stricken as Mate Is Elected.

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—Mrs. Charles Dostschman, whose husband was elected county recorder yesterday, died this morning at her residence, 78 Cedar street, at returns showing Mr. Dostschman's election were being compiled. Heart trouble was the immediate cause of death. Mrs. Dostschman worked for the Republican organization during the campaign. She was so interested it is believed she overworked.

NINE JUDGES SHIPS CAPTURED BY COUNTY G. O. P.

Two Sitting Democrats Win, but Three Go Down to Defeat.

Nine Republicans and two Democrats were elected to the Municipal court bench to fill the ten full term positions and the vacancy.

The two Democrats were sitting judges. Three Democrats sitting judges were defeated.

Two Republicans Lose.
The only two Republican candidates to fall of election were Anton T. Zeman and Frank M. Hoyt. The three sitting judges who lost out were John J. Rooney, James M. Martin, and Charles A. Williams.

In the fight for the vacancy the winner was Bernard P. Barasa, Republican. The full term victors are: John R. Newcomer, Hosea W. Wells, Wells W. Cook, John A. Swanson, John Richardson, H. R. Stewart, John F. Haas, Howard Hayes, Republicans, and John R. Caverly and Harry P. Dolan, Democrats.

Bar Primaries Poor Index.

The Chicago Bar association primary, which is generally supposed to be an index of the way the public will vote, proved somewhat inaccurate as a forecast of Tuesday's election. The bar polled its second highest vote for Mr. Tamm, who was one of the sitting judges defeated. It had given its endorsement to Rooney and Williams, and each of them was defeated. Haas, who was not a favorite with the lawyers, proved to be with the voters.

RUMOREDO'LEARY WRONG $50,000 ON VOTE BOOK

"They Tell Me Hughes Is Beaten," He Says in Sober
Tone; "That's Tough."

"Mr. O'Leary wasn't feeling so well last night. There was a rumor that his book went wrong to the tune of about $50,000 on Hughes and Wilson. And it didn't improve the temper of the 'examining' of the stock yards to know that $50,000 is ready for payment to Wilson winners in Righelmer's.

When the first returns seemed to indicate the election of Hughes, O'Leary was in high feather. He said he had been for Hughes right along as a prospective winner.

"Not Going to Lose."
"Of course," said he, "I'm not going to lose, no matter how it goes. My book is like a racing book, it's a commission proprietor."

"How much will you win?"
"That would be telling," said O'Leary.
But last night there seemed to be no need of asking how much he would win.
There was a sober tone in his voice.

"They tell me Hughes is beaten," he said. "That's tough."
Notwithstanding his statement that he had acted only as a commissioner, there persisted the rumor that O'Leary had taken a plunge on Hughes.

In Righelmer's $50,000 was paid out to Hoyne winners. Late in the evening there still remained in the hands of J.
C. Righelmer $50,000 to be paid to those who wagered on Hoyne. More than $200,000 was posted with Righelmer for the Wilson-Hughes betting. This did not include sums in about 200 envelopes, amounts not disclosed.

Keep Up Betting.
There was still wagering in the Clark street bar at 7 o'clock last night.
Hughes backers were asking odds of 10 to 8 and there seemed to be plenty of takers. There was plenty of Lowden money placed, but it was all given back.
There were no takers.

"I have handled more cash than any other stakeholder in Chicago," said Righelmer at night. "The total will be around $300,000." Based on this it is safe to say that around $1,000,000 was wagered in Chicago exclusive of personal bets that were not carried on in a semi-public place like this. I expect there will be a general rush for the big pay off tomorrow."

BET ALL DAY IN NEW YORK;
WILD FLUCTUATION IN ODDS.
Big Brokers Refuse to Pay Off
Wagers—Wilson Favorite Near
Even—Million Put Up.
New York, Nov. 8.—[Special.]—Under extraordinary conditions today would have been "pay off" day among election bettors in Wall street. In fact, some brokers who had wagered on Wilson let the stakeholders pay the money. But in general the big betting commissioners declined to settle the wagers.
Prompted by the doubtful character of the presidential situation the commissioners went to making new bets. As the reports on the news tickers favored
Mr. Wilson and again Mr. Hughes odds fluctuated wildly.

The opening betting was at even money. From that point Hughes men ran up the odds to as high as 4 to 1.
But as the news from Minnesota, California, and Kansas came in the Hughes price fell steadily and before the close
Wilson was favorite at 3 to 2.
It was estimated that not less than $1,000,000 had been bet by the several big betting commissions today.

BAKER LIKELY TO RESIGN.
REPORT IN THE CAPITAL
Rumors Continue in Spite of Denial
Secretary Has Made an Official Statement.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—[Special.]—
Despite the official denial today from Secretary of War Baker that he intended to resign, there were persistent reports that Mr. Baker would not be secretary of war long, even if President
Wilson is re-elected.

It is known in Washington that the president has been much displeased with Secretary Baker's conduct during the campaign. It was felt that his Jersey City speech, in which he compared Washington's soldiers with Villa's bandits, had lost many votes for the president.

Secretary Baker, it is reported from authoritative sources, was called out of the campaign following his sensational charge of a Mexican plot and was permitted to make only one public appearance, that being at his home city, Cleveland, where his appearance had been billed for weeks ahead. Secretary Baker is reported to have had a run-in with the powers that be in the Democratic party or with the president himself.

WHO'S LEADING?

"Tribune" Telephone Switchboard and Hand Pressed Operators Answering 8,000 Election Calls an Hour.

Over 3,100,000 connections were made by operators of the Chicago
Telephone company up to 7 o'clock last night.
The Tribune switchboard started at 5:30 Tuesday morning doing out election returns. A woman called up at that hour to ask the returns. By 1 o'clock hundreds of women, confident of the omniscience of THE TRIBUNE, had called up to find out who was the victor. At 4 o'clock, the hour of the closing of the polls, calls started to come in at the rate of 8,000 an hour, and kept on until 3 o'clock in the morning.

Two hours later the wires started to warm up again. People seemed to have the hunch that the accepted defeat of President Wilson was not true. The operator on night watch sent out a distress call. Soon a force of six operators was on the job.

"We never had so many calls in the history of THE TRIBUNE switchboard," said Miss Anna Garrow, chief operator. "During the day we received long distance calls from places as far distant as Fort Worth, Tex.;
Cedar Rapids, Ia.; and Moberly, Mo."

AMERICAN SHIP, BEING SHELLED, CALLS FOR HELP

Wireless Says Columbian Is Attacked by Submarine—Crew of U. S. Citizens.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The American-Hawaiian steamship Columbian, of 6,670 tons gross, is sending out wireless telegraph calls for help, stating that it is being shelled by a submarine.

The Columbian sailed from New York on Oct. 15 and from Boston on Oct. 21, bound for Genoa. The vessel touched at St. Nazaire, France, Nov. 2, leaving the following day for Italy.

Carried No Passengers. New York, Nov. 8.—The American-Hawaiian Steamship company's vessel Columbian is under American registry and is a freighter, carrying no passengers and a crew of about 115 officers and men, according to officers of the company here.

It was under charter by the France and Canada Steamship company, with offices here. It discharged a cargo of horses at St. Nazaire, France, and continued on for Genoa laden with iron and steel taken on at New York, according to officers of the France and Canada company. Being an American vessel, it was unarmed, it was stated.

Most of the Columbian's crew were Americans, the steamship officials here said. The vessel was a sister ship to the Kanawha, which the German submarine U-53 held up off Nantucket a few weeks ago, but permitted to proceed.

NO WARNING TO ARABIA. LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Peninsular and Oriental line Arabia received no warning from the submarine which sank it in the Mediterranean on Monday, according to a statement issued today by the admiralty. All the 487 passengers, including 100 women and children, and all the crew, with the exception of two engineers, who were killed by the explosion, were saved by other vessels.

The homeward bound Peninsular and Oriental mail steamer Arabia was torpedoed without warning and sunk in the Mediterranean at about noon on Nov. 6," says the admiralty announcement.

"The vessel had 487 passengers, including 100 women and children. All the passengers were saved by various vessels, which were diverted to the scene of the disaster. Two engineers are missing and are believed to have been killed by the explosion. The remainder of the crew were saved."

AMERICAN WAS ABOARD. Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8.—Paul R. Danner of this city, an American citizen, was a passenger on board the British steamer Arabia. Danner, who is a Harvard graduate, 25 years of age, has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in India a number of years, and according to his parents he was returning to spend a further term at home.

Capital Awaits Report. Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—The attitude of the American government in connection with the sinking of the steamer Arabia in the Mediterranean on Monday probably will depend upon whether any Americans were aboard. The state department was without official information today on the sinking, but expected a report from diplomatic officers as soon as the facts were established.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7, by wireless to Berlin and Sayville, Nov. 8.—Military operations on the Caucasus and Tigris fronts are reported in the Turkish war office announcement today, which says:

Caucasus front—Skirmishes on our right wing resulted favorably for us. Hostile reconnoitering attempts on our left wing were repulsed. On Nov. 4 and 5 we made a surprise attack on the island of Kizova, West Anatolia, which for a long time has been the rendezvous for bandits, who, with the assistance of a hostile fleet, have attacked and looted our coast. We killed more than 100 bandits and made prisoners who will be hanged.

Tigris front—Our volunteers routed a hostile squadron near Fehle. Later two battalions of infantry sent as a reinforcement were driven back. The enemy suffered heavy losses, while ours were insignificant.

FRENCH ARMS DEPOT RAZED.

Berlin Reports Several Successful Air Raids Behind Enemy Lines on the Somme.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—A great French armament depot at Carley, on the Somme, was destroyed in the raid made Monday night by a German aerial squadron, the war office announces. Other aerial raids on the same night inflicted damage in about twenty places behind the French lines where Russian soldiers were billeted.

STEADY RETREAT BY MACKENSEN IN THE DOBRUDJA

Bucharest Reports Further Advance—Saw Battles in Transylvania Sector.

BUCHAREST, Nov. 8.—The Roumanian forces in Dobruja, continuing their offensive movement, have made further advance toward the south, it is announced officially. All along the Danube yesterday there was artillery and infantry fighting.

Southern, at the mouth of the middle estuary of the Danube, was attacked by aeroplanes, one of which was brought down. On the Transylvanian front, in the vicinity of Prubova, an Austro-German attack was repulsed. Violent artillery fighting continued in this region, as well as in the Buzau valley. The situation is unchanged along the northern Roumanian front.

Balkan War Report. PETROGRAD, Nov. 8.—A further advance by the Russians west and south of Mount La Munka, south of Dorna Vatra, near the Roumanian border, was today's official report. The Russians reached the section of the Bistrica valley from Belver to Holo.

The situation along the Danube is unchanged.

Front of Archduke Charles Francis—The Tulghe sector again yesterday was the scene of lively fighting. The enemy gained further small advantages.

At the head of Boda pass parts of our positions taken during the last few days by the Roumanians were recaptured.

Hostile attacks on Tatarhavas pass were repulsed.

Our success in the district of Spini was further consolidated and the number of prisoners increased.

Front of Field Marshal von Mackensen (Dobruja)—There were no events of special importance. Macedonian front—Hostile attacks in the Cerna bend were without success.

Big Victory for Germans. By the Austro-German conquest of the Roumanian position at Chabucel, which had been made a powerful point of support, says the Overseas News Agency, the last salient of the Roumanian line against the Transylvanian frontier heights in the sector of Predal has been taken.

From the abrupt mountain fortress, situated five miles southwest of Predal and at a height of 1,875 yards, the military critic of the news agency says, the Teutons dominate the road through the pass as well as the village of Anaga. In addition to eight cannon and twenty machine guns 1,741 Roumanians fell into the hands of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops.

4 CONGRESSMEN, REPUBLICAN GAIN BY ILLINOIS VOTE

Williams, Tavenner, Buchanan, and Stone Bowled Over by the Returns.

BULLETIN.

With Cook county complete and 1,334 downstate precincts reported, the vote for congressmen at large was:

Kostner, Dem. .... $42,451

Williams, Dem. .... $35,419

McCormick, Rep. .... $45,276

Mason, Rep. .... $44,403

Gaining one congressman at large and three district congressmen over Democratic incumbents, the Republicans elected twenty-one members of the house of representatives to six for their opponents in Illinois on Tuesday. William Eliza Williams is the defeated Democratic incumbent as congressman at large and Clyde H. Tavenner, Frank Buchanan, and Claude U. Stone of the Sixteenth were the district victims.

Only those districts in the most solid of Democratic territory survived the Republican onslaught in Cook county. James McAndrews, Democratic congressman in the Sixth, just lost to his Republican rival, Arthur W. Fulton, by 1,445 votes out of a total of 30,000 cast.

Charles Martin, who defeated Congressman James T. McDermott for the Democratic nomination in the Fourth, won an easy victory over John Golombiewski, Republican, and Thomas Gallagher, Democrat, from the Eighth, defeating Frank Sullivan by a vote of more than two to one. Congressman Adolph J. Sabath, Democrat, won easily over David T. Alexander.

Republicans Sall In. The Republican incumbents met with little difficulty. Martin B. Madden, First; James E. Mann, Second; Walter W. Wilson, Third; Fred A. Britten, Ninth, and George Edmund Foss, Tenth, swamped their Democratic opponents by pluralities ranging from 7,267 for Britten to 21,336 for Mann.

Another overwhelming Republican congressional victory in Cook county was the defeat of Buchanan by Nile Jul in the Seventh. Jul won from his opponent by a plurality of 10,017, receiving 47,270 votes to 37,253 for the Democratic incumbent.

In the Fourteenth, downstate, William J. Graham of Aldo defeated Congressman Tavenner, known as one of the little navy men, by a plurality of 800, after a bitter struggle. In the Sixteenth Congressman Stone lost to Clifford Ireland of Peoria by an indicated plurality of 2,000.

Rainey May Get By. Loren E. Wheeler of Springfield, Republican congressman from the Twenty-first, had a hard fight to win over his Democratic opponent, Thomas Rees, but defeated his rival by approximately 1,000 votes. Available returns indicated that two Democratic downstate congressmen, Henry T. Rainey, in the Twentieth, and Martin D. Foster, in the Twenty-third, had survived.

The other Republican downstate congressmen returned are: Ira C. Copley, Eleventh; Charles E. Fuller, Twelfth; John C. McKensie, Thirteenth; Edward J. King, Fifteenth; John A. Sterling, Seventeenth; Joseph G. Cannon, Eighteenth; William B. McKinley, Nineteenth; William A. Rodenberg, Twentieth; Thomas S. Williams, Twenty-fourth, and Edward E. Denison, Twenty-fifth.

Mrs. Oldfield has been ill. She has three children; it is stated by her friends.

G. O. P. TO RULE HOUSE; SENATE TO DEMOCRATS

Republicans Have 222 in the Lower Branch on Returns—Foes 208.

the Republican candidate, is pressing Senator Reed, the Democratic incumbent, closely.

Confirmation came today of the defeat of Senator Sutherland, Republican, of Utah by Will H. King.

The indications are also that Senator Clark has been defeated in Wyoming by J. D. Kendrick, the Democratic candidate.

These Results in Doubt.

The results in Arizona, New Mexico, and Nevada are still in doubt, with the Democratic candidate ahead in Arizona and Nevada and the Republican candidate slightly in the lead in New Mexico.

The result in Montana will not be known in all likelihood until the final returns are in. Senator Myers, Dem., is slightly behind former Congressman Pray, the Republican candidate, now.

Thus far none of the noted national leaders in the house has been defeated.

There were several upsets, however. The Republicans swept Iowa and Wisconsin clean. Tuesday night it appeared they had lost the two Milwaukee districts to the Socialists, but the final returns yesterday indicated their success there.

Moss Loses in Indiana.

In Indiana, Representative Moss, one of the co-authors of the rural credits law, went down to defeat before his Republican opponent.

In Michigan, Congressman Doremus, in the First district, was finally shown the winner. Late returns indicate the defeat of Congressman Beakes, the other Democrat in the district.

The Republicans lost four seats in Ohio, but more than made this up in Indiana, where they gained seven. They gained four in Illinois, defeating Congressman at Large Williams and Congressman Stone, Tavenner, and Buchanan.

In Pennsylvania the Republicans defeated Warren Worth Bailey, the Bryan anti-preparedness leader.

In Massachusetts, however, one of the leading Republican congressmen, E. H. Roberts, was defeated by A. W. Fuller, running as an Independent.

It is still doubtful that the new congress will have a woman member. While early returns indicated the election of Miss Jeanette Rankin in Montana, one of the Republican candidates, later ones evened up the race. Last minute returns also have thrown the Second and Eleventh Iowa districts back into the doubtful column.

Charles Sulzer, a brother of former Gov. Sulzer of New York, has been elected delegate to congress from Alaska.

In California the Republicans gained three seats. They held their own in Washington, Oregon, Wyoming, Nevada, and New Mexico. They lost a seat in Utah, however.

While the Republicans gained one seat in the south, the First Oklahoma, they lost one in North Carolina, the Tenth. The official count may save the latter for them.

Senator Lippitt Loses.

The most surprising result of the election, so far as the Republicans were concerned, was the defeat of Senator Lippitt in Rhode Island by Peter Goulet.

The laboring man of the state apparently cast their votes for Goulet.

Another surprise was the defeat of the Democratic candidate, D. J. Lewis, in Maryland by Dr. J. W. France, Republican.

Congressman Sutherland of West Virginia has held his lead over Senator Chilton in the race for the senate in that state.

J. R. Frelinghuysen in New Jersey has boosted his lead to more than 60,000 over Senator Martine, Democrat.

There no longer appears to be any doubt over the continued control of the senate by the Democrats. The whole interest of the Republicans still is centered in the house. Late returns might swing it either way or even place the balance of power in the hands of a small group of Progressives, Socialists, Prohibitionists, and Independents who have been elected.

GERMAN CONSULAR AGENT MEXICAN OUTRAGE VICTIM.

Dispatch from Chihuahua City Says He Was Killed or Held Captive by Rebels.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 8.—A report has been received here from Chihuahua City that Edgar Koch, German consular agent at Parral, either was killed or was being held for ransom by Villa bandits in the vicinity of Santa Rosalia.

Koch is believed to have started from Parral with the $50,000 worth of silver bars for an American mining company, which is reported to have been taken from him at Santa Rosalia by Villa bandits, and a later report said Koch had been executed.

A traveler who arrived here from Santa Rosalia confirmed the report of Dr. C. H. Fisher's execution by Villa bandits at Santa Rosalia, following the capture of the town by the Villa troops on Oct. 26. He stated that Dr. Fisher was stabbed to death.

HOW CRACKER KING'S SON CUTS BREAD WHEN 'SOUSED'

Mrs. William John McMahon Tells Court Spouse Is Intoxicated Three Times a Week.

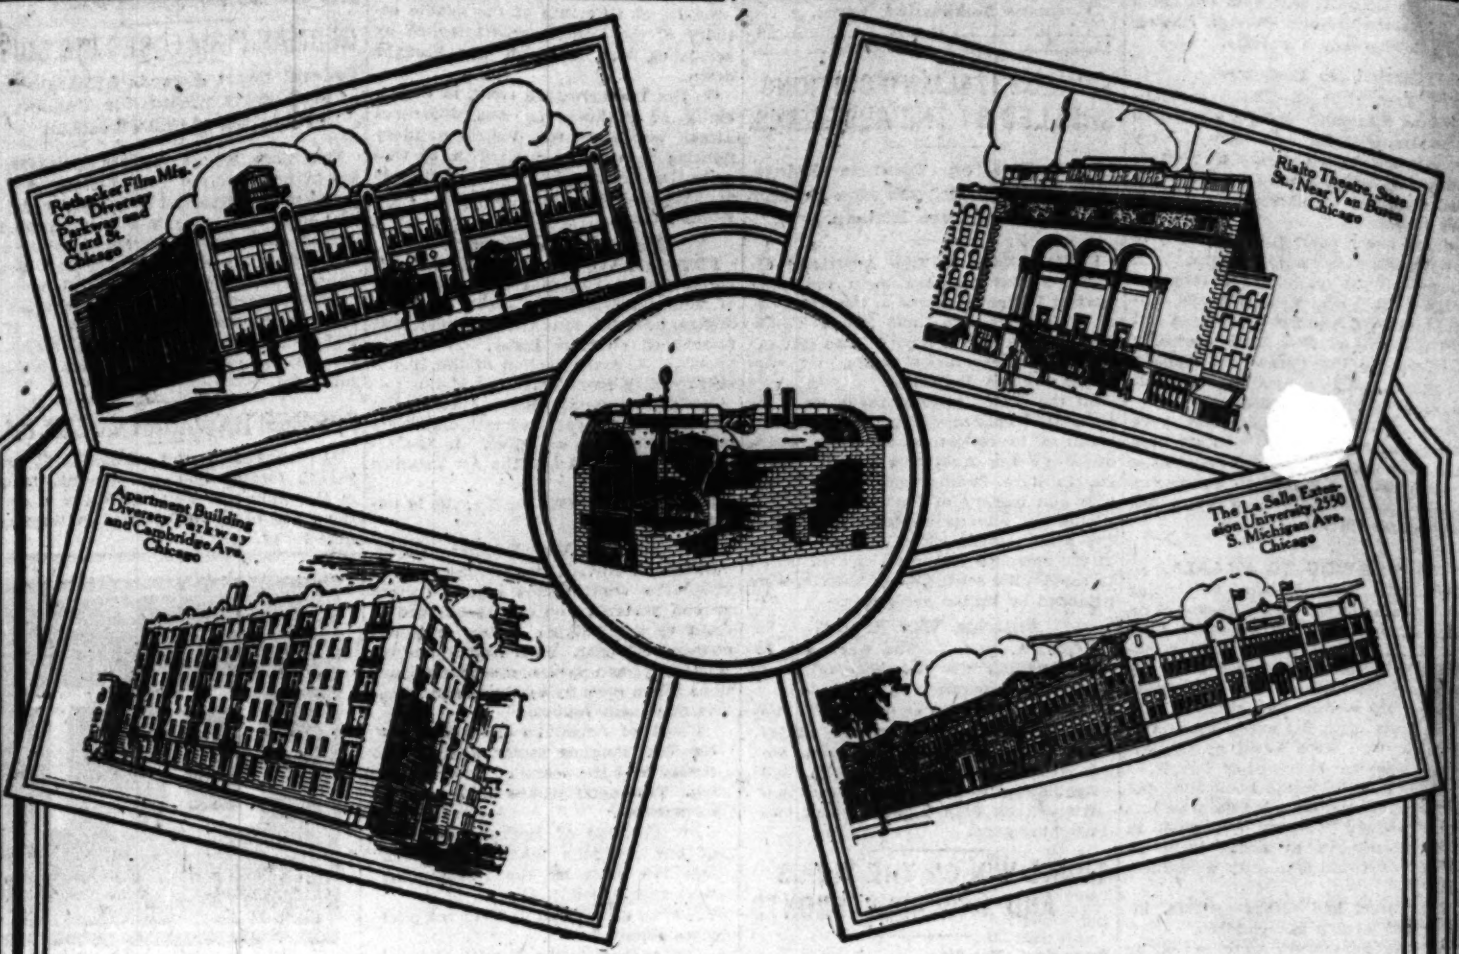

An exhibition of how William John McMahon, son of John McMahon, "the cracker king," cuts a loaf of bread when intoxicated, was given by his wife in Judge Gridley's court, where she appeared in her suit for divorce. Mrs. Edith Eleanor Webster McMahon, in support of a charge of cruelty and drunkenness, told the court that her husband was intoxicated on an average of three times a week. This statement was sustained by Miss Nora L. Dodd of 209 Windsor avenue, a divorcee, who testified she had seen McMahon intoxicated fifteen times in the last six months.

"One time Mr. McMahon came home intoxicated and he threatened to throw me off the porch," Mrs. McMahon testified. "Another time I found the cards of two chorus girls in his pocket. He also pawned his ring that day."

MARTIN LACEY, FIRE CHIEF, DIES AS CAR CAPSIZES

Eleventh Battalion Head Killed
When Auto, Speeding After Alarm, Turns Over.

Fire Chief Martin J. Lacey of the Eleventh battalion was almost instantly killed yesterday when his motor car, rushing south in Halsted street in response to a fire alarm, was overturned at Root street.

Chief Lacey was regarded as one of the most efficient officers of the fire department, and for that reason was stationed in the stockyards district. He was driving with his chauffeur, John B. Moreau of 5601 Aberdeen street, when the accident took place.

Tries to Avoid Wagon.
At the Root street crossing a heavy wagon of Armour & Co. was passing. Moreau attempted to swerve his automobile, but the high rate of speed caused the machine to turn turtle. The chief's skull was fractured.

The stockyards police rushed Lacey to the Englewood hospital, where it was said there was no hope. He died soon after 7 o'clock.

In Service Since 1888.
The chief was 55 years old and lived at 4506 Emerald avenue. He joined the fire department in 1888. He was made a lieutenant in 1890 and a captain in 1893. He was made battalion chief in 1908.

Fire Marshal O'Connor paid a high tribute to Chief Lacey, whom he regarded as a valuable member of the department.

WARD REPEATS HIS STORY OF MORRISON TRANSFERS

James R. Ward, present holder of several million dollars' worth of Edward Morrison's property, took the witness stand in Judge Carpenter's court yesterday. Ward told his story in much the manner that he related it in Judge Landis' court three months ago.

He said Mr. Morrison transferred all the property to him to avoid a seizure by Charles Rignmann, who holds a judgment of $80,000 against the "millionaire." Also, he testified, he had the property deeded to him "to protect" himself from debts he alleges Morrison owes him.

Ward's story was told in a rambling sort of way, and only a few times did he border on making specific statements. Vague generalities mostly were dealt in, and before Attorney Francis Houlihan, representing the Central Trust, was half through with him it was time to adjourn.

The first witness of the day was Otto E. Pitsch, a real estate expert, who testified concerning the value of certain properties in the Morrison estate.

WOMAN FEARS SHE WAS 'DOPED'

Either That or Hypnotized,
Mrs. Hartwick Says in Divorce Bill.

DRANK SODA WATER.

Mrs. Sidonia Hartwick wants to know if she was doped or hypnotized when she married George O. Hartwick. In a suit for divorce filed yesterday she tells of first meeting her husband in her parents' store. On Sept. 9, less than two months later, she says, she "awakened."

Her Story.
Her story is as follows:
On July 25 she was working in the store run by her parents at 2836 Irving Park avenue when she met Hartwick for the first time. Five days later, on a Sunday, she was going to visit a girl friend, but instead met Mrs. Emma L. Langland, sister of Hartwick, and was invited into her home. She was then persuaded to go to a picnic in Des Plaines, Ill., and that is where she met her "downfall by drinking soda water."

Mrs. Hartwick says she was asked to leave the room in which her future husband was seated, and she left with his sister. Later she returned and drank more soda water.

Mind Then a Blank.
From that time on until she "awakened" in September, when she left her husband, her mind was a blank, she alleges, and she says she is of the opinion that she was hypnotized or drugged.

After the ceremony Mrs. Hartwick alleges her husband took her to Sam West's "notorious saloon" on West Madison street, and introduced her to many men. Later, she charges, he attempted to persuade her to lead a life of shame.

The suit was filed by Attorney Charles Kramer.

GROG IN HIS GOLF BAG

Every Hole Was a Nineteenth to Alexander, a Friend of His Testifies.

Every hole was the nineteenth to Alexander Heening, according to testimony which resulted in a divorce for Mrs. Hannah Heening.

"He would carry a bottle of brandy in his golf bag and take two or three drinks on the way around," testified J. E. Sawhill, a broker, who lives at the Stratford hotel.

"He couldn't get the necessary kick out of whisky and took to brandy," Mrs. Heening, who lives at 4361 Michigan avenue, testified. "He averaged a gallon a week. He addressed a woman clerk in his employ as 'sweetheart' and 'dear,' and on one occasion when I returned from golfing I found a woman in my home with him."

U. S. OFFICIALS START HUNTING FREIGHT CARS

Shippers State Their Troubles to Federal Commissioner—
Blame Munitions Trade.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The nationwide search for more freight cars was put under way today by Interstate Commerce Commissioner McChord, with representative shippers from widely separated sections testifying that the shortage was cutting their business in half and threatening the public utilities companies with complete suspension of operation in some cases.

Owners of public utilities, including coal, coke, gas, ice, and electric light plants, appeared in person to tell the commissioner that the situation had become so serious they were already taking steps to restrict the supply to their customers. Organizations of coal mine operators, grain interests, and a range of manufacturers also joined in the appeal to the government to take control.

T. H. Hurd of the Cleveland chamber of commerce was the first shipper to make the statement, after pointing out that the public utility companies of his city were hardly able to supply 80 per cent of the demands and citing an instance of one gas company cutting off 500 manufacturers from service recently because of the shortage. The Cleveland Illuminating company, he said, had been forced to shut down.

Blame Munitions Trade.
J. A. Paisley, another Cleveland representative and a coal mine operator and shipper, stirred the hearing with a direct charge that the railroads were openly discriminating against the coal mine shipments in favor of the steel mills and munition makers.

Mr. Paisley, who ships coal to the northwest, stated that the supply would run 3,500,000 tons short for that section this year if the railroads did not furnish shippers with cars to take the coal to the lake docks. Lake navigation closes on Nov. 25 and he made a plea for emergency orders.

J. S. Brown, representing the Chicago board of trade, testified that on Oct. 30 there were 27,000,000 bushels of grain in the elevators, against 7,514,000 bushels last year at the same time.

"I estimate," he continued, "that right in Chicago alone 5,000 cars of grain could be loaded during November if the cars were available. Out of five elevators I canvassed two of them did not have a car standing. Seventy per cent of the cars we unload are marked 'unsuitable for reloading.'"

SUGGEST CAR RELIEF.

A plea that the present coal shortage could be relieved if a mandatory order was issued by the court to force 146 railroad companies to "obey the law" pertaining to the return of empty cars to owners was made in Judge Landis' court yesterday by attorneys representing a group of mine owners of Illinois and Indiana.

The railroad companies were represented by thirty lawyers. M. F. Gallagher, counsel for the mine owners, made his argument and cited numerous authorities to show the railroad companies could be forced to return empty cars.

"The coal shortage could be relieved and these mine owners would not find themselves forced to keep their shafts closed the greater part of the year," he said. "The railroad companies are in reality guilty of theft when they do not return the empty cars and unless the situation is relieved they will face ruin for the business and investments."

Attorneys for the railroad companies contended the law was obeyed and all railroads suffered alike through the same cause. They asserted it was impossible to return all the cars to all the roads.

Curls Will Last
Says hair stays curly and wavy for a long time and appears natural too.

Girls! Try this! Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. A few ounces of atalpa water will cost very little at any drug store and there is nothing better to help retain the curls and waves or to soften, gloss or fluff the hair and to make it look thick and abundant.—Advertisement.

Before curling or waving your hair with pins, papers or a heated iron, just moisten each strand with atalpa water and you will be delighted how natural the curls and waves appear and how long they last in spite of wind, dampness or perspiration. ## Well, Anyway, the Maroons Are Not Marooned

FAMOUS TYPES:
Line-oPURPLE GRADS
TO CELEBRATE
AT IOWA GAMEOld Time Grid Heroes Will Flock Back for the Homecoming.

BY EVAN STONE.

It'll be "home-coming" day at Northwestern university Saturday. E. P. Williams, president of the University Athletic association, sent out hundreds of letters yesterday to the alumni of the Evanston school asking them to pay a visit to their alma mater. The big feature of the celebration will be the Purple-Hawkeye clash. Even the townspeople are giving their aid in making the day one of the best and biggest in years.

All fraternities and sororities will entertain and the houses will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. A huge mass meeting will be held tomorrow night, at which former football stars of the days when Northwestern was a championship contender in the gridiron sport will be the principal speakers. The advance sale shows that the game will be largely attended.

Drill in Drenching Rain.

That Coach Murphy is as fearful of Iowa, despite the licking the Hawkeyes received at the hands of the Gophers two weeks ago, as he is of the other teams the Purple have met, was shown yesterday by the manner in which he drove the players through the drenching rain. The regulars engaged in their first scrimmage of the week and every member with the exception of Capt. Driscoll took part in the workout.

Driscoll was out in uniform, but refrained from any unnecessary roughness because of the injury to his right ankle. Although limping perceptibly, the Purple leader is expected to be in shape for Saturday's contest. Half Back Cigrand, who has been out nearly three weeks with two broken ribs, is on the team, but it is doubtful if he will be used against the Iowans, and it is a certainty he will not appear unless the veterans become dangerous.

Iowa Plays Fall Flat.

Purple freshmen have been using Iowa offense and defense against the varsity, but have not made any noticeable gains when carrying the ball, nor has the defense been able to stop the upper classmen's attack. The scrimmage lasted about an hour and a half, after which Murphy gave his charges a session at the tackling dummy. There has been some weakness in this department of the game and the Purple coach hopes to correct the fault before the Iowa contest.

As the rainclouds obscured the moon the air lights were brought into use and it was past the supper hour before the players were dismissed.

MAROON PLAYERS EAT MUD
IN DRILL WITH FRESHMEN.

Coach Stagg's second string University of Chicago players plowed through the mud in a heavy battle with the freshmen at the Midway yesterday, while the varsity men were qualifying for any kind of rough weather by a session of signal practice which did not end until 5:30 o'clock.

The regulars disregarded the steady rain which fell throughout their hours of drill to become as nearly letter perfect as possible on the formations which they will use in confronting the versatile Illinois and Coach Williams' whiffy Gophers.

Tickets for the Minnesota game at Stagg field on Nov. 25 were placed on sale for the first time, and so great has the interest become in the taut conference competition that 1,000 duclats were disposed of at the gym. The contest with the northmen will ring down the local big nine season. Northwestern played its last game on the same day against Ohio State at Columbus in what may be the championship encounter.

MICHIGAN TEAM WILL GET EARLY START FOR EAST

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The University of Michigan varsity team, accompanied by the staff of coaches and a flock of newspaper men, will leave Ann Arbor tomorrow night at 8:45 o'clock. They will go to Geneva, N. Y., and remain there until Saturday morning, when they will go on to Ithaca for the Cornell game. Friday night twenty reserves and hundreds of rooters will go on a separate train direct to the scene of the clash.

Scrimmage was once more introduced into the overline program, and more or less strenuous work was indulged in by all the gridirers today. The details of the clash with the reserves were strictly censured, in accordance with the new policy of careful secrecy.

Morrie Dunne and Capt. Maubetich continued their goal kicking practice with consistent success.

Cornell Camp Confidential.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—When the Cornell varsity trotted into the showers tonight following the long practice of the season they were a tired but happy lot. The playing today brought back the old confidence, which has been lacking ever since the Harvard game.

The lineup for the Michigan game points to Ellenberger and Ryerson, ends; Mullins and Jewett, tackles; Miller and Anderson, guards; Carry, center; Shiverick, quarter; Speed and Benedict, halves; Mueller, fullback.

The presence of Speed in the backfield makes it necessary for the removal of one of the regular halves. Benedict seems to have the choice over Hoffman because of his valuable punting and Hoffman probably will be held ready to go in at fullback in case Mueller is not in his best condition.

Tilley and Bard may be sent in at the guards at the last moment to strengthen the forward line against the expected Michigan rushes. Eckley and Zander, the other two ends, are considered a little too light to check Michigan's style of attack, although both are likely to figure before the game's end.

IN FOOTBALL CAMPS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Coach Williams has called for a slight letup in the grueling program of practice for the Gophers. There was no scrimmage for the varsity and may not be until Saturday, when an extra heavy workout will be held. Today was devoted to phantom scrimmage and the men got a long drill in new plays. There was practice in punting, forward passing, and open play formations. There is talk of a shift in the lineup before the Badger contest. The men are rounding into shape again and recovering from their slowness. Capt. Baston is still bothered with a bruised leg. The freshmen are drilling on Badger plays for experiment on the varsity later this week.

OHIO STATE.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Coach Wilce of Ohio State and his charges are not taking the Indiana game as an easy one. They well remember the Hoosier contest of last year, and are ready for another battle of the same kind. Bear stories coming from Bloomington are not gaining much attention, as it is thought that some of the Hoosier crimpies will be in good shape for the game.

Coach Wilce took an active part in the practice session today, getting in at full back to show his charges how it ought to be done. All the men are in good shape and the work is now of the kind that will make the Ohio offense as strong as the Hoosiers do what Illinois and Wisconsin failed to do, stop "Chic" Harkey.

WISCONSIN.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Heavy rains this afternoon confined the game.

HAMBURG TO MEET RACINE.

Cornell-Hamburg will meet the Racine, Wis., eleven Sunday afternoon at Schorling park, Thirty-third street and Wentworth avenue. Early in the season the North Ends of Evanston, whom the Cornells will meet Thanksgiving day for the county title, defeated Racine, 10 to 3. This game will demonstrate the relative strength of the local eleven. In the curtain raiser the Cornell A. C. will play the Wallace A. A. in the Chicago Amateur league.

ILLINOIS.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Preparation for the Chicago game on Nov. 18 began in earnest tonight. Stagg's eleven has always given the Zuppke men a hard battle, and the little coach doesn't plan on losing this one if hard work and long hours of practice can stave off defeat. Tonight three squads worked at blocking practice and scrimmage until after the lights thrown on.

Zuppke is already planning for next year's team to the extent of developing a punter to take Macomber's place. Christensen is showing promise. He is fairly accurate and has a powerful drive, two things essential for the work.

That's an unusual word—what is it? Omar and aroma mixed up together—Omar-aroma, in happy combination.

And the aroma in the Omar cigarette is just as happily distinctive as the aroma in the name. It is soothing and ripe, smooth and rich—a supreme triumph of blend.

Omar—the perfect Turkish blend! Even the words blend.

MAROONED MEN TELL HARDSHIPS OF ANTARCTICS

Members of Shackleton Party
Arrive in London Eager to Take Part in War.

(By Cable to The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Eleven members of the Shackleton Antarctic expedition, which sailed two years ago from South Georgia for Weddell sea in the steamer Endurance, have arrived in London. They had traveled from Buenos Aires in the steamer Highland Laddie, belonging to the Nelson line, which generously gave them passage.

All of the party, in spite of the extraordinary hardships they encountered in the last two years, are in the best of health and are looking eagerly forward to taking part in the war.

Tells of Many Disasters.
"Compared to my previous antarctic experiences," Frank Wilder, second in command, said, "this was by far the hardest, all things considered. There was constant anxiety and fresh problems presented themselves every day."

"The last week in the small boats before we reached Elephant Island was the climax. Sir Ernest and myself had no sleep at all, and except for the way in which Sir Ernest nursed some of the men, we should have never brought them through."

"The actual day on which Sir Ernest took us off was the 30th of August. Of course we had no idea that this was his fourth attempt, and it was the luckiest thing in the world that the yacht came when it did. Two days earlier it would not have got anywhere near us, and two days later it would probably have been as bad."

Get Aboard Ship Quickly.
"It had been arranged that a gun should be fired from the ship when it got near the island, but, as a matter of fact, we saw the yacht before we heard any gun. The ship was about a mile and a half away and steaming past us. Catching up somebody's coat that was lying about, I stuck a pick into a tin of heroines kept for the purpose, poured it over the coat, and set it alight. It flared, instead of smoking, but they saw it."

"There was a pretty heavy sea running, but we did not waste much time in getting aboard, and in less than an hour we were steaming north."

POLISH LEADER PLANS COLONY

Maxime Shottland-Presents Scheme to Railroads for Execution After Strife.

WAR RUINS NATION.

Maxime Shottland, the Polish economist and writer, arrived in Chicago yesterday to interview heads of western railroads regarding a plan to colonize 50,000 Polish agricultural families in one of the western states at the close of the war. Shottland says he represents some of the Polish royal families and the capitalists of that country.

In his suite in the Blackstone hotel last night Shottland told a graphic story of a seven weeks' trip through Poland, traveling incognito under a false passport, and of the privations and sufferings of the people.

Million Fatherless Babies.
"Since the beginning of the war 7,000,000 children under 7 years of age have died of malnutrition and starvation and now a million Polish girls are bringing fatherless babies into the world," the writer said, his voice trembling. "Rape and murder run riot through the land and the only thing my people have is hunger and of that they have plenty."

"If the Poles of America, and Americans themselves, want to save these babies that are coming they should send milk to Poland. I can guarantee that it will reach its destination."

"Poland Land of Ruin."

"Our country has been the battlefield of the war, and in all the seven weeks I traveled I did not see one cow or even a chicken. Everything has been taken by the armies. Poland is a land of ruin. Its story can only be written with blood. It would take the pen of Poe to describe the horror I have witnessed. The land is scarred with trenches and marked with shells."

"A new disease has appeared. Hands and bodies become bloated, and the only known cure for it is good food and plenty of it. Thousands are dying from it."

NORTH AVENUE MEN MEET.

West End Boosters' Association Gives Annual Banquet at

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

(Copyright, 1916, By The Chicago Tribune and The New York Globe.)

Evening Frock of Black and Silver.

BY HELEN MERRILL EMERY.

THE accompanying sketch shows one of the most stunning models of the season. This frock features a combination of black and silver. Over a straight moderately full skirt of black satin is hung a tunic of silk net backed with wide black ribbon broadened in silver in a large oak leaf pattern. The bodice, also of ribbon, is scarcely more than a wide girdle and is held over the shoulders by bands of jet and crystal from which hang tiny strings of brilliant, jeweled motifs just over the hips restrain any undue fullness, for this season's models all show long, slender lines and an absence of bouffant draperies. A decidedly smart note is introduced by a pointed panel of black velvet, not un-

Real Love Stories

Climbing Up Love's Stairway.

THERE was simply no way out of it. I was getting fat! For the third time that noon I stepped on the scale, and registered the same as I had the two previous times. It couldn't be a mistake, for the figures started blankly back at my horror-stricken face.

Only a girl who has been popular and Then left on the wayside and finally left behind altogether could realize my despair. If I had the chance to go to a dance now I was a wall flower, because no boy cares to push a heavy-weight around the slippery floor to sweet strains of music.

Then came my salvation. I started to read "Beauty Hints" and one morning the article said the best thing to do to regain your effluence was to eat less and climb stairs—just give the elevator the cold shoulder.

Now, it happened that I worked on the seventh floor, and climbing seven flights of stairs is no joyful exercise. The first morning I was puffing by the time I reached the third, so I sat down to rest. Probably I shouldn't have done so, but I'm glad I did—for "The staircase was in sight of the elevator, and as I sat resting it stopped, letting off a brisk young man. Seeing my position, he came over anxiously and inquired if I were ill. Of course I had to pretend I was, so he escorted me to my office.

"If a man's love will survive a woman's dressing table it will survive anything."

"I did not see him again for a week; but that time I had lost eight pounds and was an expert if not agile climber. On some pretense he had come up to our office for a conference with my employer, and was incidentally introduced to me. In answer to his request I replied he might if he liked to walk, for I was the star member of the pedestrians' club."

That was two years ago. I am now back to my normal weight; in fact, I was at the time Vic and I were married. After two months of climbing and walking I had regained my "effluence," and had given in to Vic's persuasion. And—well, yes—there's no Reno on the map for us!

POLLY.

Points of Etiquette.

"Dear Miss Blake: Will you kindly let me know how long before the wedding date it would be proper to ask the parents for the bride-to-be? They kindly tell me the proper dress for bridegroom at a noonday wedding. V. T."

There is no set time at which the parents are asked. As a general rule, however, when a man first proposes to the girl, the parents are consulted. The proper dress for a bridegroom at a noonday wedding is a frock coat, gray trousers, and gray tie.

An Incontinent One.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 21, single, and a great lover of beauty. I am afraid to marry, for fear I could not be true to one woman. I have no trouble in getting a date, so don't like to pass up any. Wishing you a merry Xmas and happy New Year, I await a speedy reply."

I would be afraid, really, to have you marry too until you get a little more settled. It seems to me you have coming to you a few years of knocking around the world, getting the conceit taken out of you and some practical sense put into you. Wishing you too, the compliments of the season, I wish to remain your adviser whenever you feel unable to solve your difficulties alone.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign of little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's use; gives a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the food waste, sour bile and fermenting food which clogs the bowels, passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a 25-cent bottle of "Paderewski" as any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most if not all of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Otto W. Kappelman.

TWO grandmothers, 83 and 84 years old, led the grand march at the wedding of Miss Hazel Dorothy Goddard, daughter of Mrs. J. K. Goddard of 1022 Sunnyside avenue, and Otto William Kappelman of 6311 Ingleside avenue at the Hotel Sherman last night by Dr. Herbert L. Willett of the University of Chicago.

The grandmothers were Mrs. H. Reiber, 83 years old, of 1811 Ingleside avenue, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. E. M. Sherwood of Grand Rapids, grandmother of the bride.

MARION HARLAND'S HELPING HAND

Cleaning a Crater.

"W"ILL our "Bachelor's Corner" be so great by holding it under the faucet or pump, letting the water run over and through it forcibly? Just as soon as it is free from particles which have adhered to it, shake it vigorously until the water is clear. It will be ready to use the next time. The use of a fork will remove any bit that has fastened itself to the crater.

Author of "My Mother."

"Perhaps I can answer, E. F. L., as satisfactorily as any one can, with regard to the inquiry as to the stanzas entitled 'My Mother.' I have twelve verses, the entire poem, all ending with 'My Mother.' It is in an old spelling book published in Halifax, 1806. It does not give the author's name nor any of the select pieces printed at the end of the book, but, of course, this settles the question of James Whitcomb Riley's authorship. In looking for further information, I find in my 'Familiar Quotations' that Jane Taylor, born 1782, died 1824, is the author of one stanza. I copied the poem for a retired minister who asked for it in the Corner. If it is wanted again, you may give my name. I am glad to do the least thing for our Corner.

Cripple Needs Crutches.

"In reading the Corner every day, I notice your good work in giving a helping hand to the poor. I know of a woman who is a cripple, has small children, and who is a widow. She greatly needs a pair of crutches, four feet two inches measurement. Will some one kindly donate a pair to her, which are no longer needed? Mrs. A. L. R."

Does any one who reads the above letter know of a pair of crutches the length mentioned by the crippled widow's friend? If so, note that we have the address and are anxious to put it into the right hands.

WHEAT DEVELOPS MUCH STRENGTH; BULGE IN CORN

Foreign Advances Bullish and Grain Goes Into Strong Hands—Trade Active.

After a rather poor start wheat developed a great deal of strength yesterday, and at one time December was 54c above the previous close, while May showed 4 1/2c gain. Heavy selling on the bulge caused late reactions, but resting spots were 2 1/2c better than Monday's final quotations. There was heavy buying by some of the local traders, partly influenced by the strong stock market and partly by the recent big foreign purchases at Winnipeg, and on the advance numerous shorts were forced to cover. There was also talk of large export sales of American wheat, but only 200,000 bu could be confirmed. Argentine weather was unsettled and the markets there ruled firmer following their sharp declines of Tuesday. Rosario was 1 1/2c higher and Buenos Aires 2c higher. Liverpool spot wheat was unchanged to 1d higher.

Increase in Available Supply.—Breadstuffs showed an increase of 5,000,000 bu for the week in world's available supplies of breadstuffs, compared with an increase of 17,000,000 bu for the corresponding week last year, and total stocks now are less than 37,000,000 bu greater than a year ago. Breadstuffs foreign crop review was mainly unfavorable. The wheat crop of Italy is now estimated at 2,000,000 bu under earlier expectations. A decrease of 800,000 bu for the week was shown in the United Kingdom visible supply. Foreigners are unable to buy suitable quantities of grain from exporting countries, and the reports of recent big purchases of Canadian wheat by the British commission are regarded as significant.

There were beneficial rains in sections of the southwest and winter wheat seeding is about completed. Good clearances for the last two days were 1,300,000 bu. Primary receipts totaled 2,522,000 bu, compared with 2,857,000 bu a year ago.

Corn Market Is Strong.—Corn exhibited remarkable strength from the outset, and closed with net advances of 1 1/2c. Wet weather in central portions of the corn belt, promising delay in the movement from the country, together with the bulge of 2 1/2c in Liverpool spot corn, caused a lot of short covering early. Leading holders sold on the bulge, but the offerings were not pressed, and the strength in wheat encouraged new buying later in the day. Reopening showed higher action and says that it is expected that importations of corn will be liberal, both by the United Kingdom and the continent, for mixing purposes.

Cash corn was unchanged to 3c higher, the yellow grade showing more strength. Receipts here were 136 cars and included 119 cars of new corn. Local shipping sales were 45,000 bu. Seaboard clearances were light at 19,000 bu. Primary receipts totaled 1,900,000 bu, against 1,554,000 bu for one day a year ago.

Oats Are Also Firmer.—Oats ruled stronger in sympathy with other grains and finished 3/4c higher. Buying was stimulated by the strength in other grains, and there was considerable short covering in addition to buying by export interests. Best-selling was by elevator people. Oats at London were sharply higher, with some limited and demand good. Crop advances from Argentina were unfavorable. Cash oats here were 1 1/2c higher, with local shipping sales 180,000 bu. Clearances from the seaboard were 45,000 bu. Primary receipts totaled 2,000,000 bu for two days, against 1,885,000 bu a year ago.

Rye and Barley Firm.—Rye was firm. No. 3 quoted at 1 1/4c nominal and No. 2 at 1 1/2c. Receipts were 15 cars.

Barley ruled dull but firm.—Malting was quoted at 1 1/2c and sold at 1 1/2c. Feed and milling quotations were 1 1/2c and 1 1/2c. Receipts were 15 cars.

Timothy was easy.—Year closed at 50c and March 50 1/2c. Cash lots sold at 1 1/2c. Cloverseed was unchanged, with cash lots sold at 12 1/2c. Receipts 118 cars.
